

AMERICAN READING COMPANY

Job-Embedded Professional Development

ARC Executive Coaches work side by side with district and school leaders as they organize all stakeholders around critical evidence of student learning. Additionally, ARC Coaches work with teachers in their own classrooms as they integrate the TEKS into their daily practice.

All ARC professional development is structured around a gradual release model.

- On-Site Workshops and Institutes
- Grade Group Meetings
- Fishbowl Demonstration Lessons
- 1:1 Support, as Needed
- Status Checks

Professional development is available for all ARC Frameworks and systems as well as for general educational best practices, such as:

- Project-Based Learning
- Formative Assessment
- Text Complexity
- Close Reading

Types of Professional Development Sessions

Workshops	Grade Group Meetings	Fishbowls
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Whole-group workshop with interactive model lessons, videos, and current professional literature 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professional Learning Communities • Effective common planning • Data management • Levels review organized by school and district leadership teams • Building internal capacity 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Demonstration lessons in classrooms with teacher grade groups
Accountability Systems/Feedback Loops		Family Workshops
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Levels Reviews to establish inter-rater reliability • Instructional rounds (Status Checks) • School/District leadership sessions • Quarterly Reviews • 1:1 Support, as Needed 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 90-minute workshops for up to 50 parents and children • Establish and maintain academically successful reading routines at home

fax: 610-992-4156
 toll-free: 866-810-2665
www.americanreading.com

PreK	Kindergarten	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9 & 10	11 & 12 [®]
RTM	1-3Y	1G	2G	1B	2B	1R	2R	Wt	Bk	Or	Pu	1Br	2Br	Si	GI