+ Educational Culture

+ Our Thinking

Rarely do we find men who willingly engage in hard, solid thinking. There is an almost universal quest for easy answers and half-baked solutions. Nothing pains some people more than having to think.

Great Leaders are Purpose-Driven

We don't get burned out because of what we do. We get burned out because we forget why we do it. Purpose keeps you fresh.

+ Discussion

- What do the following three slides mean to you as an educational leader and what implications do they have in the “daily practices” of those you are entrusted to lead?

The shoe that fits one child pinches another. There is a difference between EQUITY and EQUALITY. In our education system, we must remember, one size does not fit all!
